

Second Vatican Council, also called Vatican II, (1962–65), 21st ecumenical council of the Roman Catholic Church, announced by Pope John XXIII on January 25, 1959, as a means of spiritual renewal for the church and as an occasion for Christians separated from Rome to join in a search for Christian unity.

Vatican II also made profound changes in the liturgical practices of the Roman rite. It approved the translation of the liturgy into vernacular languages to permit greater participation in the worship service and to make the sacraments more intelligible to the vast majority of the laity.

THE TRUE MASS

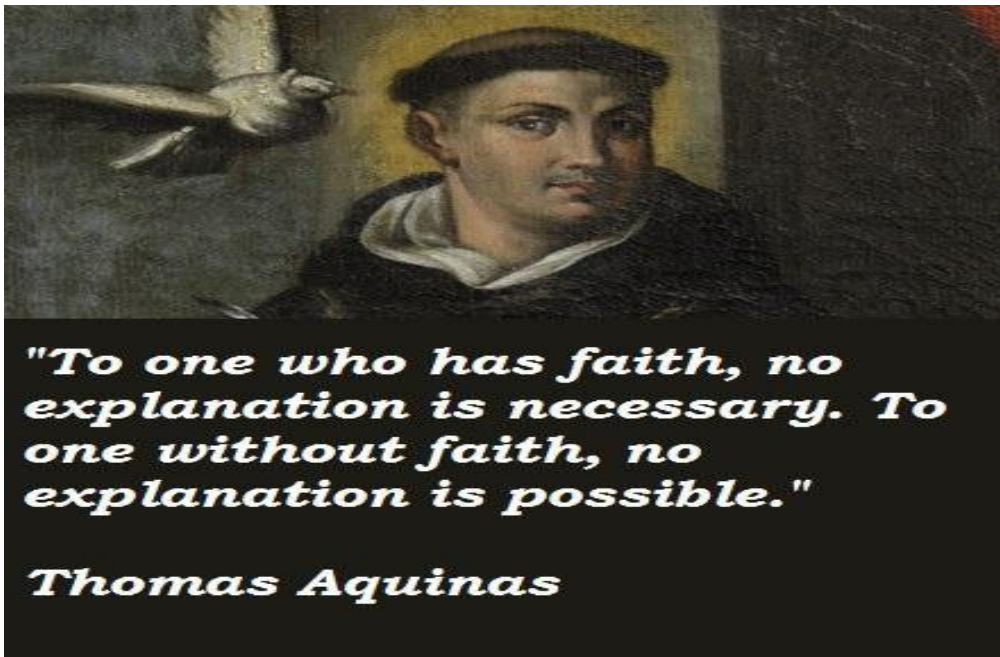

THE ABOMINATION

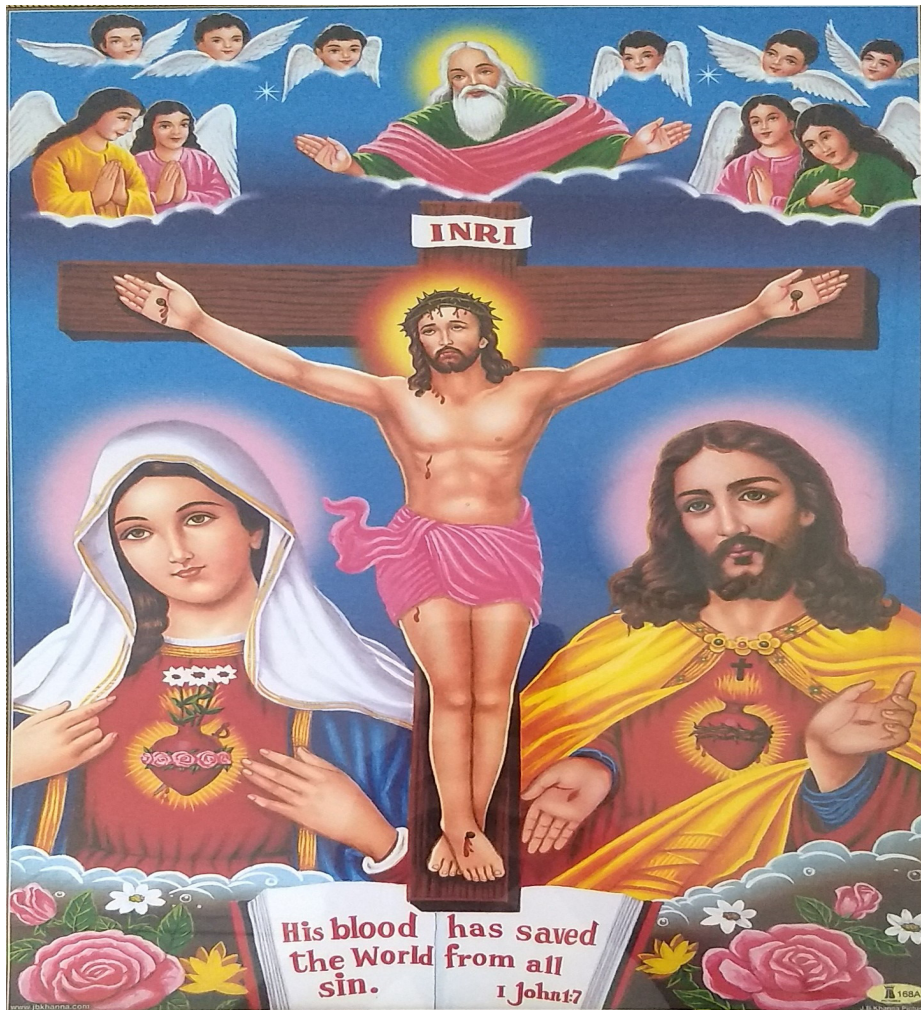

THE DISMANTLING

The Mass prior to Vatican II was divided into two parts; the Mass of the Catechumens and the Mass of the Faithful. The Council {Vatican II} changed the structure that it would have four parts; the Initial Rites, the Liturgy of the Word, the Liturgy of the Eucharist, and the Concluding Rites.

DEDICATED TO THE HEART OF JESUS AND MARY

Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Heart of Mary, I come to you to consecrate myself and my entire family to Your Two Hearts.

INTRODUCTION

I have put together a project that I started just the first of the New Year {2022}. We know that today and every day it seems difficult to bring our brethren back to the Church. I have attached a short summary of information that I accumulated over the years as I was putting my website together. I actually started to put it together for my own family, and I hope that you may be able to pass it on to your own family and friends.

We are fortunate, as a Priest mentioned to me, that we received the grace to see and to hear what went wrong with the Catholic Church. This plan to destroy the Church goes back many years. They knew that in order to succeed they would have to enter the Church from inside rather than outside.

I was very fortunate to meet people in Fort Wayne who had given us a lot of material. The key words that made a difference for me was when I saw the article where Paul VI and 6 Protestant ministers, and a Freemason Bishop, Annibale Bugnini participated in putting together a New Mass of Order.

Mind you, I was brought up with the truth and had the true Catechism, so that was in my favor, and when I read the article I said to myself, "This Is Impossible!" So I looked up a Protestant {Methodist} service and to my amazement they were doing the same as our "new" Mass.

Watching Father J.J. O'Connor, RIP {1926-2006}, he had mentioned about a seer that said she saw a man with an apron picking stones out of the Vatican, Dogma - Faith - Canon Law. This was gradually done over many years by the enemies of the Church {Atheists}.

PROJECT LETTER

We were given "ears to hear" and "eyes to see" and over the years we have been blinded by Blind Obedience, hardly anyone investigates what has been going on for years.

I have been following conspiracies since I worked in Detroit in 1997, and I came up with the conclusion that there are two:

1) Conspiracy in the Catholic Church (one can see the churches are empty); for now, I am just explaining the crisis of the church; and

2) Conspiracy of governments (the New World Order)

My interest at this time is about bringing back the Faith to those that I may be able to help and explain the "Fall of the Catholic Church."

Growing up, most of us didn't understand much about the Mass but we couldn't miss Mass or special days. Most of us never heard of the word Transubstantiation. It is the changing of the bread and wine into to the body and blood. The meaning of the Mass goes like this: "The Mass on the Altar is the same as on the Sacrifice on the Cross." The main reason that the Mass is said in "Latin" is because it is a dead language, and cannot be changed. This is what happened over the years. The main culprit was Vatican II; the church is completely changed from Holy to Unholy. The 7 Sacraments are completely changed and also from the Bible.

(The true Catholic Bible is called Douay-Rheims)

WHAT WE MISSED AND DIDN'T UNDERSTAND

The visible signs were right in front of us, and we didn't realize what was going. What actually happened was that through blind obedience we were deceived.

- a) Translation from Latin to English. {Latin is a dead language} Latin is the language of Jesus
- b) Put Saint Joseph in the Canon
- c) Put All instead of Many at the Cannon {As if to say all will be saved or all believe}
- d) Destroyed the Liturgy.
- e) The roll of women in the Church.
- f) For the kingdom and the power. {End the Our Father}

The most visible annihilation was the Mass

1 Machabees 1:62

1 Machabees 1:57

THE PLACING OF THE TABLE BEFORE THE ROMAN RITE ALTAR

On the fifteenth day of the month Casleu, in the hundred and forty-fifth year, king Antiochus set up the abominable idol of desolation upon the altar of God, and they built altars throughout all the cities of Juda round about. And on the five and twentieth day of the month they sacrificed upon the altar of the idol that was over against the altar of God.

The Sacrifice on the Cross is the same as on the Altar.

This is the most important part of the Mass. This is the unbloody sacrifice to God. This should have been the key that should have been recognized that the changes were coming when we saw that the Priest had changed positions after facing the Cross and then started to face the people. The Priest faces the Cross, who is the High Priest, to bring Jesus down on the altar.

Here below, is what the Novus Ordo claim is the advantage with the Mass facing the people?

I) It makes for better communication between Priest and people.

II) It avoids the sense that the people are an addendum to the Priest's liturgy.

III) Not least, we live in an age of democracy and respect for the individual in which facing away from someone in any context is generally insulting.

First one has to understand what the Catholic Church is all about.

HOW COULD THIS HAPPEN?

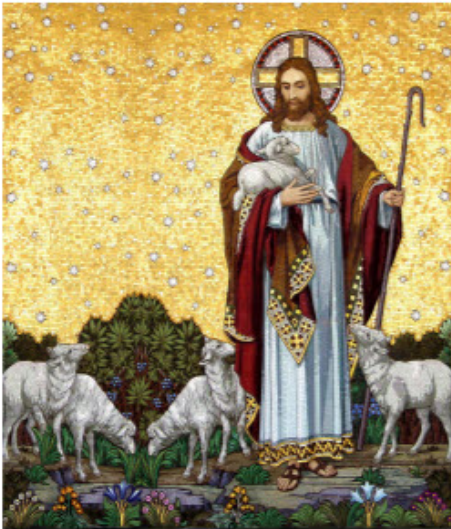

A) John {Pope John 23rd} had been in office less than three months when he announced in January 1959, that the Council would convene. In preliminary discussions about its purposes, he insisted that the time had come to "open the windows of the church to let in some fresh air." Vatican II, as it came to be called, would open those windows.

B) As a result of Vatican II, the Catholic Church opened its windows onto the modern world, updated the liturgy, gave a larger role to lay people, introduced the concept of religious freedom and started a dialogue with religions. {Holy Pope Saint Pius X Condemned Modernism}. We were led away from those who were supposed to guide us. This was cleverly done through blind obedience and the lost of faith followed. CHRISTIAN FAITH

Christian faith is the firm conviction, arrived at with the grace of God, that all that Jesus Christ taught on earth is true, as well as, all that the Catholic Church teaches by the commission she has received from Him.

HOW DOES THE TESTIMONY OF OUR CONSCIENCE PROVE THE EXISTENCE OF GOD?

By our conscience we can distinguish right from wrong.

A. Our conscience approves the right and condemns the wrong. Thus, within ourselves there is our cognition of a Supreme Lawgiver to Whom we are are responsible, who will reward the good we do and punish the evil.

"Only the fool says in his heart: There is no God"
(PS. 13:1)

B. Those who persist in denying the existence of God in spite of external and internal testimony are atheists who are eaten up by pride, or live vicious lives, or both. Of them Our Lord said: "Seeing they do not see and hearing they do not hear, neither do they understand . . . For the heart of these people has been hardened, and with their ears they have been hard of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; Lest at any time they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their mind, and be converted, and I heal them" (Matthew 13:13-15)

CATHOLIC FAITH

How Catholics lose the faith?

By Father Michael Muller, 1880:

- 1} By going to schools forbidden by the Church.
- 2} By neglect of their religious duties.
- 3} By reading of bad books.
- 4} By worldliness and a wicked life.
- 5} By intercourse with scoffers.
- 6} By mixed marriages.
- 7} By becoming members of secret societies.

8} By pride & subtle reasoning on the mysteries of religion, Christian faith is the firm conviction, arrived at with the grace of God, that all that Jesus Christ taught on earth is true, as well as, all that the Catholic Church teaches by the commission she has received from Him. The core Christian belief is that, through the death and resurrection of Jesus, sinful humans (which are all humans (Romans 3:23) can be reconciled to God, and thereby, are offered salvation and the promise of eternal life in heaven. Catholics believe in the resurrection of Jesus. The Catholic Church says that the Mass is the highest and supreme form of prayer. For Catholics, the greatest form of the worship is the Mass. The Mass is classed as a sacrament because the Eucharist is received within each Mass. The Mass is also classed as a sacrifice, as the sacrifice of Christ on the cross is the same as the Sacrifice on the Altar, made present and true each time the Eucharist is celebrated.

THERE IS A SIGNIFICANCE BETWEEN THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS

1) Both of the Testaments provided a Sacrifice given to praise God:

a) In the days of the Old Testament, a burnt offering was the offering of clean lamb for a sacrifice, which was used to be pleasing to God;

b) In the New Testament the Sacrifice God had chosen was His Son Jesus to Sacrifice Himself on the Cross.

2) God provided in both the Testaments a set or rules to be carried out:

a) Jesus provided us with His Sacraments for penance and grace. Jesus came to this earth for the express purpose of shedding His precious blood on the Cross to provide forgiveness of sins. Jesus did not come the first time to set up an earthly kingdom.

b) After the freeing of the Jews from the Egyptians, Moses received the Ten Commandments for his people at the same time that they were worshipping Idols;

THE OLD TESTAMENT

Because of the sinful nation, our God passed down the Ten Commandments which is a set of rules or laws. God gave them to the people of Israel. The TEN Commandments make clear the moral, holy, and righteous standard that God requires for that separation ultimately to be bridged ... God knew we never would or could live up to these TEN Commandments. (Genesis 3:22-24).

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

1. Thou shalt not have strange gods before Me;

2. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain;

3) Remember thou keep holy the Sabbath Day.

4. Honor thy Father and thy Mother,

5. Thou shalt not kill;

6. Thou shalt not commit adultery;

7. Thou shalt not steal;

8. Thou shalt not bear false witness;

9. Thou shalt not covet another's wife;

10. Thou shalt not covet another's goods.

In the days of the Old Testament burnt offering, was the offering of clean lamb for a sacrifice.

In the above image their sacrifice being offered to God is a burnt offering. A burnt offering in Judaism (Hebrew: קָרְבַּן עֹלָה, korban olah) is a form of sacrifice first described in the Hebrew Bible. The term is first used of the sacrifices of Noah. As a tribute to God, a burnt offering was entirely burnt on the altar.

Although sacrifices could include bloodless offerings (grain and wine), the most important were animal sacrifices. However, God understood that the Israelite were used to the animal sacrifices which the pagan tribes used as the primary way to commune with their gods.

THE NEW TESTAMENT

Immediately after the Ten Commandments, the Lord revealed a whole series of laws of repentance, baptism, remission of sins, and the law of carnal commandments. God gave the laws to Israel not to shackle them but to guarantee the greatest faith. Jesus passed down to the Apostles and then on to us the Sacraments. All Sacraments produce sanctifying grace which heals our souls and raises them to a supernatural state.

THE SEVEN SACRAMENTS

I BAPTISM: We are "born Again" to the divine life.

(Maybe supernatural life.)

II CONFIRMATION: Strengthens the divine life within us.

III PENANCE: Restores the divine life when it has been lost by mortal sin, or helps its growth, when it has been hampered by venial sin.

IV THE EUCHARIST: Supplies daily nourishment to the divine life.

V EXTREME UNCTION: Supplies the divine life within us in the hour of our death.

VI By HOLY ORDER: The line of those who transmit the divine is maintained.

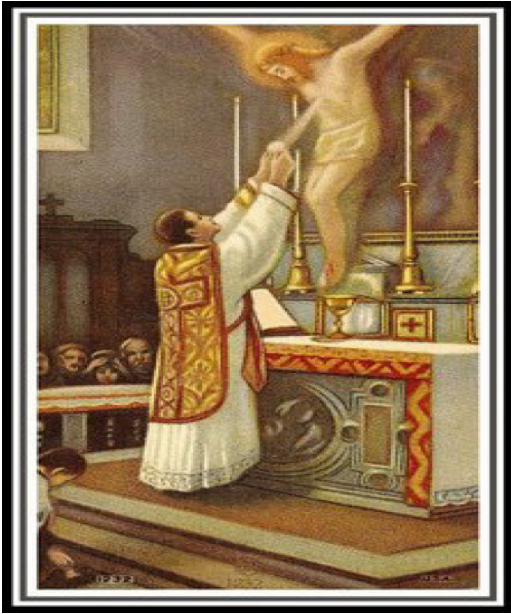

VII By HOLY MARRIAGE: The line of those who receive the divine life is maintained.

.Jesus instituted the Sacraments to sanctify mankind. God uses the Sacraments as the ordinary channels to impart His grace; therefore, they are necessary to keep and nourish the life of grace in our souls

JESUS THE VICTUM

SACRIFICE ON THE ALTAR SAME AS SACRIFICE ON THE CROSS THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS

The Holy Mass is the Unbloody sacrifice of the Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ Who Offers Himself on the Altar, through the Priest of God, as He offered Himself on the Cross to save the world.

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the fulfillment of all of the sacrifices of the Old Covenant. In the New Covenant, the one sacrifice on the Altar of Calvary is revisited during each and every Catholic Mass. Jesus Christ merited all graces and blessings for us by His death on the Cross.

Transubstantiation - Catholics believe that during Mass, the bread and wine used for Communion become the body and blood of Jesus Christ - this is central to the Catholic faith.

Indeed, this is what the Catholic Church teaches. During the Last Supper, Jesus offers himself as the Passover sacrifice, the sacrificial lamb, and teaches that every ordained Priest is to follow the same sacrifice in the exact same way.

Christ also bids farewell to his followers and prophesies that one of them will betray him and hand him over to the Roman soldiers. While they were eating, Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and giving it to his disciples said, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you, for this is my blood of the New Covenant which be shed on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins."

(Matthew 26:26-28; Mark 14:22-24, Luke 22:17-20,
1 Corinthians 11:23-25)

Then Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen I say unto you, Except you eat the flesh of the Son of man, and {54} drink his blood, you shall not have life in you. {55} He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood, hath everlasting life, and I will raise him up in the last day."

For them, the death of Jesus was part of a divine plan to save humanity. The death and resurrection of this one man is at the very heart of the Christian faith. For Christians, it is through Jesus's death that people's broken relationship with God is restored. This is known as the Atonement.

Except for the resurrection on Easter, Holy Thursday is possibly one of the most important, complex, and profound days of celebration in the Catholic Church. Holy Thursday celebrates the institution of the Eucharist as the true body and blood of Jesus Christ and the institution of the Sacrament of the Priesthood.

WHY DID JESUS SACRIFICE HIS LIFE FOR US?

He did it all to let us know the depth of God's love for us. Christ died for sins once, for all – "For Christ died for sins once, for all, the righteous for the unrighteous in order to bring you to God." (1 Peter 3:18). There will never again need to be a sacrifice for our sin. He did it all to let us now the depth of God's love for us.

Footnote:{I} 10 Reasons:: Why the Catholic Church is the True Church {Page 64}

THE FOUR MARKS OF THE CHURCH

The Catholic Church teaches that it is the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic church founded by Jesus Christ in his Great Commission; that its Bishops are the successors of Christ's Apostles, and that the Pope is the successor to Saint Peter, upon whom primacy was conferred by Jesus Christ.

The True Church is One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic. The Church that possesses all the shining marks which Our Lord gave is the Church of God, the True Church. Any church that lacks even one of these marks is an imitation, a false church, and not the one founded by Our Lord. The True Church must possess all of these marks. It is the Church which Christ commanded all to hear and obey.

- 1) The True Church is that one which is most persecuted by the world, and which has received God's seal in the form of miracles;
- 2) The True Church is that one which the successor of Saint Peter is to be found; and
- 3) The True Church is known for the following four marks: she is One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic.

It was founded by Jesus Christ in the year 33, and headed by St. Peter, who was chosen by Christ Himself, as is our first Pope.

The Church at the Council of Constantinople declared, concerning herself, that she is One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic. These are not only her essential qualities, but her outward and visible signs, the marks whereby she may always be infallibly recognized.

The Four Marks

<http://thetruecatholicchurch.com/i-one-true-church/c-the-four-marks/>

THE BEGINNING OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

If one goes back to history, you would understand that the Church was infiltrated many times. The Catholic Church began when Jesus started preaching to Christians when he was 30 years and was Crucified when he reached 33 years old. From then, the Christians were gravely persecuted until about the year 300 AD. The first Roman Emperor to claim conversion to Christianity, Constantine, played an influential role in the proclamation of the Edict of Milan in 313 AD, which decreed tolerance for Christianity in the empire. He called the First Council of Nicaea in 325 AD, at which time the Nicene Creed was professed by Christians. Then, in the 1400 hundreds there came a big change in the Catholic world.

THE REFORMATION

Martin Luther, who was a German monk, forever changed Christianity when he nailed his '95 Theses' to a church door in 1517 AD, sparking the Protestant Reformation. He was actually a "Protester" of the Catholic Church and he started his "own" church. He also left out seven (7) Books of the Bible and changed the Sacrifice of the Mass to a meal instead of the Sacrifice. In January 1521 AD, Luther was officially excommunicated from the Roman Catholic Church.

Luther's version of "saved by faith and not works" created the change to "all" are saved no matter what, and that "all" go to heaven. He also changed charity to mean accepting what is evil and what is against God's Commandments, instead of focusing on saving souls for all eternity.

AFTER THE REFORMATION

When Martin Luther issued grievances about the Catholic Church in 1517 AD, King Henry VIII took it upon himself to personally repudiate the arguments of the Protestant Reformation leader. The Pope rewarded Henry with the lofty title of Fidei Defensor, or Defender of the Faith.

Barely a decade later, the very same Henry VIII would break decisively with the Catholic Church usurping the role of Supreme Head of the Church of England (left the Papacy) and dissolved the nation's monasteries; absorbing and redistributing massive property as he saw fit. In all, Henry VIII was married six (6) times and had three (3) of his wives executed and he also started his own church. He executed many Cardinals, Bishops, Priests, Nuns, and Monks who became Martyrs. He made himself head of the Church of England. One can see the blind obedience of the Bishops as they followed a murderer; for those who deserted the Catholic Church went on to follow a man who made his own church and is a murderer to this day, and since then numerous other "man-made" churches started.

PAPAL INFALLIBILITY

The Pope has supreme and complete power and jurisdiction to decide questions of faith and morals and to arrange the discipline of the universal Church.

Papal Infallibility: Is what is said is what it means in all the exact words.

WHEN WAS PAPAL INFALLIBILITY DECLARED?

{Pope Pius IX 1870}

The Dogma was proclaimed by {Pope Pius IX 1870}, following bitter disputes by the First Vatican council in 1870. The doctrine of papal infallibility means that the Pope cannot err or teach error when he speaks on Faith and Morals Ex Cathedral, or "from the chair" of the Apostle St. Peter – {that is, in his role as supreme teacher of the church}, which is to be held by the whole Catholic Church.

THERE WAS NO NEED FOR A SECOND VATICAN

It set the pace to dismantle the Dogmas of the Church and its teachings and it fully succeeded.

VATICAN II

About sixty years ago, Pope John XXIII shocked the world when he convoked the Second Vatican Council. Known as Vatican II, the Council called thousands of bishops and other religious leaders to the Vatican, where they forged a new set of operating principles for the Roman Catholic Church. Other takeaways from Vatican I were declarations on the church stances on Rationalism, Liberalism, Materialism, and the inspiration of Scripture. Vatican II is a whole different council. It sought to reconcile the church with the modern world.

RATIONALISM: Is the practice of only believing what is based on reason. An example of rationalism is not believing in the supernatural and that reliance on reason is the best guide for belief and action.

LIBERALISM: Liberals espouse a wide array of views depending on their interpretation of these principles, but they generally support free markets, free trade, limited government, individual rights (including civil rights and human rights), capitalism, democracy, secularism, gender equality, racial equality, internationalism ... from Liberalism is a sin in: "What is Liberalism" by Fr. Felix S.Y Salvadoran, Tan books, 1978, and condemned by Pope Pius IX, Syllabus of Errors.

MATERIALISM: Modernism was condemned by Pope Pius X? The pope condemned modernism, a loose movement of Catholic biblical scholars, philosophers and theologians who believed that the church could not ignore new scientific historical research concerning the Bible.

ECUMENISM: Is any type of effort which aims to unite different denominations of Christianity. There are a range of ecumenical communities which, although run differently, have the same aim; to unite Christians from different denominations and backgrounds in worship and community. How is the Bible the inspired Word of God? Condemned by St. Pius X

INSPIRATION OF SCRIPTURE: The entire Scripture is the inspired Word of God because the Bible says so (2 Timothy 3:16). The entire Scripture is inspired by God, not just partially or in a degree. Although most of the Scripture was verbally conveyed to God's people through the prophets and apostles, only the Autographs are inspired.

As a result of Vatican II, the Catholic Church opened its windows onto the modern world, updated the liturgy, gave a larger role to lay people, introduced the concept of religious freedom, and started a dialogue with other religions.

Pope John XXIII initiated the Second Vatican Council. He said it was time to "throw open the windows of the church and let the fresh air of the spirit blow through." Paul VI was elected and said in one of his lectures "from some fissure "The Smoke of Satan has entered the temple of God."

Philosopher Jean Vuitton said that Pope Paul VI's Intention was to assimilate the Catholic liturgy to the Protestant: "The intention of Paul VI with regard to what is commonly called the Mass, was to reform the Catholic liturgy in such a way that it should almost coincide with the Protestant liturgy."

THE CHANGES FROM VATICAN II

What changes occurred from Vatican 2? A principle concern of the Council was to promote the work of Christian unity and improved relations among all religion

Among the noteworthy ones were those that changed the way the church worshiped. The Altar, for example, was turned around to face the people. Mass was changed to be in the vernacular, no longer in Latin and women no longer had to cover their hair in church, and the most important was the Old Mass changed into the New Mass.

She urges all people, regardless of culture or beliefs, to open their minds and hearts to God. Mother Mary explains how to live more fully conscience of our presence and purpose here on earth, and how to prepare ourselves for re-entry into spiritual world after physical death.

PAUL VI, SEVEN PROTESTANT MINISTERS, AND ANNIBALE BUGNINI

Right hand side: The six Protestant Ministers who served as consultants to the Concilium standing with Paul VI {far right}.

Returning to the "myth" that Protestant observers did not contribute in creating the New Mass, to hold this position is to deny the obvious - not only in fact, but also in substance. In the first place, an ecumenical liturgy that would no longer offend Protestants was Fr. Annibale Bugnini's intention from the get-go as he declared in 1965:

We must strip from our Catholic prayers and from the Catholic liturgy everything which can be the shadow of a stumbling block for our separated brethren that is for the Protestants... [my emphasis]

While we learn from the close confidant of Pope Paul VI, Jean Guilton:

The intention of Pope Paul VI with regard to what is commonly called the Mass, was to reform the Catholic Liturgy in such a way that it should almost coincide with the Protestant liturgy. There was with Pope Paul VI an ecumenical intention to remove, or, at least to correct, or, at least to relax, what was too Catholic in the traditional sense in the Mass and, I repeat, to get the Catholic Mass closer to the Calvinist mass" [my emphasis][4].

To accomplish this ecumenical goal, the Consilium enlisted the help of these Protestant observers:

The others: John Paul I, John Paul II, Benedict XVI and Francis just followed suit and let the "Smoke of Satan" continue to succeed in the destruction of the Catholic Church. THE NEW MASS IS NOT THE ROMAN MASS

It is Man-Made

And finally, it must be stated and briefly explained why the Novus Ordo Missae cannot be considered the Roman Mass through its failure to fulfill the latter's requisite characteristics. In the first and most crucial matter, the Novus Ordo lacks doctrinal orthodoxy; the greatest hallmark of the traditional Roman Mass. The New Mass has an ecumenical, heterodox, and ambiguous nature; an objective of the Consilium and even of Pope Paul VI. This Ecumenical goal was accomplished with the assistance of six (6) Heretical Protestant Ministers {Protesters} to create the New Mass, resulting in the minimization, mutation, and omission of Catholic Doctrine in its texts {seen as opened to merely a bad translation}. The theological heterodoxy even went so far to include a heretical – that is, a Protestant definition of the Mass in the first version of the General Instruction.

SIGNS AND WONDERS

FAITH:

What God says about faith?

{Hebrews 11:1-6}. Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation. By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible.

"Jesus saith to him: I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No man cometh to the Father, but by me".{John 14:6}

Jesus assigned His disciples work. He developed His disciples by delegating ministry responsibilities to them. He sent His disciples out and gave them real ministry. Hands on experience was a vital part of Jesus's discipleship curriculum.

Upon the death of Jesus, He had gathered together 12 Apostles to continue to preach His word around the whole world. To gather His lost sheep was one of the reasons Jesus performed miracles, to prove that he was truly divine.

The miracles of Jesus serve as a glimpse and foretaste of what God will accomplish on a grand, universal scale when Jesus comes to establish the New Heaven and the New Earth.

Jesus's miracles, like healing the sick, walking on water, and raising the dead made non-believers believe His claim that He was the true God who came to earth to save mankind. Years ago through the Priest and prayers, there were many healings and miracles performed here on earth. The miracles of Jesus offer a preview of that glorious day. The miracles offer a glimpse of Heaven on earth.

I have attached 3 Video's with explanation

In Canada we have these three Shrines famous around the world, where there have been many miracles. Here in Amherst as I was growing up, I heard so many stories about healing and miracles. As you can see, all the canes, crutches, wheelchairs show people who were able to see, hear, and other miracles.

THE HOLY ROSARY

Recitation of the Most Holy Rosary is the key to conversions and to the attainment of eternal salvation.

After the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the Holy Rosary is the prayer most pleasing to Our Lady . . . now She reigns in heaven as Queen next to her Son, Christ the King. She was given the privilege to bestow God's graces . . . why? Because through the Rosary, with its three Mysteries, one can follow the steps of His life. We have to focus on the meditation of each decade, which can follow His complete life on earth.

The origin of the Rosary of the Blessed Virgin is not certain, though it has been associated with St. Dominic, founder of the Dominican order in the early 13th century.

Saint Pope Pius V (in office 1566-1572) established a standard 15 Mysteries of the Rosary, based on long-standing custom. This groups the mysteries into three sets:

The Joyful Mysteries, the Sorrowful Mysteries, and the Glorious Mysteries

Eucharist Miracle

As a Catholic, we believe that Jesus is really present in the Eucharistic elements.

About the Eucharistic Miracle of Lanciano:

Close up view of the Eucharistic Miracle in Lanciano.

Such a manifestation took place here in the 8th century: a Basilian Monk, who had doubted the Real Presence of Our Lord in the Eucharist, was celebrating Holy Mass, and at the consecration, he saw that the Host had changed into flesh and the wine had changed into blood; clotted and separated into 5 different sized clots. The Priest then admitted his former doubts to the stunned parishioners. The news spread quickly and the faithful came from all over to view the miracle, which to this day, has retained the same dimensions.

About the Sanctuary in Lanciano: The miracle is contained in a silver and glass reliquary and is clearly visible. The latest scientific testing, done in the 1970's, confirms what the faithful have believed for 12 centuries without the technology of today: "The flesh is real flesh." (a perfect slice from the heart), and "The blood is real blood." The blood type is AB, the same found on the Shroud of Turin. Viewing this most spectacular miracle of Our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament is a deep and moving experience for many pilgrims. "Take and eat, this is My Body which is given for you." That is to say, I believe that through a miracle the bread and the wine become Jesus's real flesh and blood, while still appearing to be bread and wine (and that's part of the miracle). Does this sound crazy?

As a Protestant :

I believed that the Lord's Supper - Communion - was just a memorial feast. It was a commemorative ceremony we celebrated as a church or small group of believers to remember Jesus's once-and-for-all sacrifice. I also believed that when Jesus said, "This is my body," he was speaking metaphorically and instead meant, "This represents my body."

But I changed my mind. Jesus wasn't instituting a mere memorial feast. He was giving us His real flesh and blood. Jesus wasn't simply asking us to do something once in a while in memory of Him. He was giving us a gift. I went from believing that the bread and wine were symbols of Jesus's sacrifice, to believing that the bread and wine were Jesus. This is why I changed my mind about Communion.

FROM: FATHER WILLIAM

My own insight in the deceit {1975} of the New Mass came from the ambiguous phraseology "When we eat this bread and drink this cup...." because that can and MUST be understood as Protestantism, because after Consecration there IS NO bread and there IS NO wine. This is what is lacking in the knowledge and belief of most people with problems.

Signs and Wonders from Jesus

My Dear Friends:

When believing in Miracles actual it is our choice which we have been told, but a Priest had mentioned to me that we better believe in those ones 1) Fatima 2) la Sallette 3) Lourdes etc, etc. and not the ones after Vatican II. In the days of our Lord on earth he had performed many Miracles and were brought down to us through the Bible. Even in His time the Miracles he had performed even to His Apostles and Disciples and other they still were in doubt.

I think this important to mention as some of you may have never known. I was born in February 1940 and through the 40's and 50's I can remember of many healing s that I heard growing up. In Canada we were blessed of at least 3 places of healing and miracles. 1) In Montreal we have Saint Joseph Oratory, As I lived in Montreal had been there for several years and visited, you would be amazed of all the canes, crutches, and wheelchairs that were there, and now most of them gone, the same as 2) Ste Anne DE Beaupre outside Quebec City and 3) Our Lady of the Cape Shrine, Three Rivers, Quebec.

Over the years I have been told many stories and I wish to share some of them and some I forgot. Prayers do count and if anyone that needs prayers for anyone of those in these last days, it is necessary to pray for them. As I always say every Roman Catholic is entitled to have Extreme Unction.

WHAT DOES GOD SAY ABOUT FAITH ?

{Hebrews 11:1-6}. Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation. By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible.

SIGNS AND WONDERS

1} When I was about 10 years old {Bill}, I came down with a very bad flu and was very sick for about a week. Each day I implored the Lord to heal me. At the end of my bed there was a large statue of the Sacred Heart on the dresser beside my bedroom window. The sun never shone through this window directly. On the day in question, I finished praying and suddenly the statue was illuminated with a strong ray of light from the window. Then, the head of the statue turned and looked directly at me! I was immediately cured and felt a wonderful sense of peace which I can still remember clearly. To this day, whenever I place a statue of the Sacred Heart anywhere in my home, over time it will slowly turn. Bill

2} This miracle happened many years ago in a small village in Joggins, N.S. Lester, one of our altar boys {now in a nursing home} had mentioned this to me. This town was completely on fire and he mentioned about a woman having a baby in her home and the house caught on fire and because she was in labor, she wasn't able to go out. Someone went to Father Curie and he stood in the front of the house and made the Sign of the Cross, and said, "The fire stops now!" and it did. My friend Bill, whom I call my Internet Technician, and who I was visiting one day, told me that his mother was there when this took place.

3} I was talking to my friend May-Anne the other night and she told me about what had happened when she worked in Ottawa. She had met this lady that lived in the country and she told her that one day she had been walking back to her house and saw that her house was on fire. A lot of Catholics would had a bag of medals and wear them around their necks. She took the bag off and threw it into the fire and it went out.

4} This article was told to me about 20 years ago. This happened many years ago back in Chicago. There was a church there was going to be painted and they would close the church from around 7:00 pm until about 7:00 am. It was around midnight when the workers saw a Priest with the Chalice celebrating Mass. After about 3 masses at the same time they decided to see the pastor. The Priest also visited and saw a couple of masses. When the Mass was over, the pastor approached the Priest and asked his name, and the pastor remembered his name from years ago. The Priest said, "If you look on the top of the cabinet you will see a book with all the stipends that I never completed." The Pastor spoke up and said, "Go rest Father. I will finish them for you."

5) This is a story from around the year 1928, in a small town in Joggins, N.S, about our Altar Server, Lester Cormier. They had horses on the farm and Lester would attend to them. One day a couple of boys were carrying on with horse and picked up the hay fork. When Lester brought the horse into the stall, he kicked Lester in the face. He was taken to the hospital and his mother had asked about her son. The doctor said he may not make it over night. His mother got on her knees and promised to visit Saint Anne's Shrine in Montreal if She would save Lester, and she did.

6) I had mentioned to you before about a very holy Priest, Fr. Yves Normand. He was the Priest here in Canada that started the traditional movement, as he was kicked out of the Diocese for refusing to do the Novus Ordo. Father had gone across Canada opening up little chapels. While in the Province of Manitoba, there was a forest fire and it was about to burn homes. As Father was up there doing mission work, he was approached to go to the fire. He got the Monstrance with Blessed Sacrament and made the sign of the cross, and the homes were saved.

7) Dear friends I was talking to May-Anne Ryan, who never missed any Masses here at the Chapel. When Covid came to entertain us in 2019 as Father Ahern was unable to attend, as she is in nursing home. She told me an article about her grand-mother who her trees around her area was on fire. The sparks were getting closer to the born. She went into the house and got an image of Saint Anne, and shoved it under the shingles, the sparks would just bounce of the roof

8) Being in contact with a lady who told me that a few women had got together {In 50' and 60's}. They wanted to bring a young girl to Ste. Anne De Beaupe, Que., as she has to use crutches to walk. After visiting the Shrine and walking away she left the crutches there.

Bomb in the Dome

9) Carol and I had visited France back in 1998 as we were on a tour and Lourdes there we saw Saint Bernedette one would believe see was sleeping. We had asked where is the Blessed Sacrament the nun said "Over there in the corner". He had also visited Nevares where Saint Therese had been. This the first Traditional Mass that we had attended the celebrater was a Cardinal this church could sit 10,000. We got to talk to someone and told us that during the Second World War an American bomber had dropped a bomb, there were thousands in side and when it struck the Bomb it got stuck in the roof.

10) A) Carol and I had gone to Rigvad, Quebec and to mention to you about the potatoes turning into stones . This happened many years ago at a farm, a farmer was told not to pick any potatoes on Sunday as there was a massive rain storm approaching and the farmer wanted to save his potatoes. The plough got stuck in the ground and the man disappeared. The Novus Ordo had covered the field with white stones, as Carol and I had walked over the stones upon kicking them a stone (black) in a shape of a potato even with eyes also. When I mentioned to Lester about the stone in a shape of a potato he said he was there, also had one but lost it in travels.

B) Our friend Lester told me that had taken a trip to Rigaud many years ago, he was at the garden and he found a potato of stone , but lost it when he moved

11) Carol's mother had told her husband Artie never to work on Sunday. He was working on his car on a Sunday, and he told his friend to go get a certain wrench and lay at the side of the car. When Artie reached for the wrench it had disappeared and he never worked on Sunday again.

12) There was social gathering at a hall and there was a sort of argument going on , a Priest stood between them to break it up. But one of them struck the Priest, and for some reason or another the man lost an arm.

13) This incidence happened in Toronto years ago, he told me that a group of people had came out of the church. Someone was cursing and swearing at God, there then appeared a cloud over the man's head and he was hit by lighting.

14) On another occasion he told me that a Mass a gentleman had left as soon as he received Communion. As he was walking down the road there appeared two giant angels, he said to them what are you doing hear. They told him never leave church until Our Lord body is completely consumed must stay until the end of the Mass.

15) He mentioned to me that he had seen the signs in the sky in the year 1938, where our Lady of Fatima had warned us about a greater war would come if man didn't heed to stop sinning. He had seen all the beautiful colors in the sky, and even notice a reflection of a car.

16) He told me when he was about 12 years old, he was working in the field racking hay with a couple more people. They had a horse and a wagon for the hay and the horse would always want to lay down. They needed the horse to pick up to the hay, in order to get him up the two would prick the horse with the pitch forks. Upon getting the horse back in the barn and its stall he was giving the horse hay, and the horse seeing the pitchfork kick him in the face and broke his arm in many places, and went unconscious and was taken to the hospital. They got the priest and his mother prayed to Saint Anne. She told him later, she promised to visit her at the shrine to watch over her son. She had asked the doctor how serious was his injuries and he thought he would die that first evening in the hospital. After 30 days he was able to leave. His mother had gone visiting people to see if they wanted to take a trip to the shrine and that is how she was able to go with her son.

17) This is a relative of someone (She was on the wild side) that I know, she had awoken one night to something hideous at the foot of her bed. She sat up and said what do you want, whatever it was said I come to get you. That is when she got up and was wanting to see a priest.

18) I was told by someone about the time two people were hitchhiking and when a car stopped for them, and as they started to enter the car they looked on the floor and the man had hooves.

19) A family in Kyiv, Ukraine with nine children were in the living room praying their nightly rosary after dinner. When they heard a crash in the kitchen. There they found a missile had crashed through the roof into the cabinets and did not explode.

20) Father Issac Relyea was at his home when he had a knock on his door. It was a policeman and told Father he needed to see his friend as his daughter {3 months old} was dying. Father said but there is snow storm and would be hard to drive through, but the policeman said I will drive you. When they arrived they went down to the basement, Father said I never saw someone cry o much. Here was a 6ft - 3in 200 lb man crying. He told Father that his baby was dying, Father said I will do a Mass but to yourself make an intention. After Mass Father couldn't give Extreme Unction but he did take a drop of the blood and put in the baby's tongue. Father had asked what was your intention, and told him for there baby to her eyes and smile, and the baby did, the baby died a couple days later.

21) This is a story of a Jew that was watching a procession of the Blessed Virgin in Europe. The Jewish person approached someone that was watching the procession and said she must be some special to have such an audience. The man said this is about Mary the Mother of God. Later on Our Lady had visited him and he was converted, and became a Priest. He had approached his mother several times to convert but only on her death bed.

22) If you are visiting Trios-Rivieras it is well worth making the short drive to this site which has become famous as the location where two miracles are said to have occurred. In 1879 the parishioners of the small church that existed on the site decided that they needed a larger church and set about building one. They relied on stone that had to be transported across the nearby St Lawrence river but in the exceptionally mild winter that year the river thawed earlier than usual preventing the transportation of the stone. Parishioners were urged to pray and soon after an ice "bridge" formed across the river and the stone was brought across. In 1888 the church was built and dedicated and three people witnessed a statue of the Virgin Mary, that had been placed there, open its eyes - an event that has become known as the "Miracle of the Eyes". The statue is still there and I would recommend visitors list the old stone church first and see it before visiting the larger and modern basilica built nearby for today's worshipers. A gift shop and cafe is available.

23) Father Leloir was interned at Buchenwald, where at 6 pm. each day the prisoners and deportees were lined up for inspection by the S.S. troops. On the evening of August 23, 1944, Father Leloir had carefully concealed on his person a small white envelope containing six consecrated Hosts, which he intended to distribute secretly among his comrades. The presence of the Blessed Sacrament on the person of the priest was known to several fellow-prisoners. Consternation filled all when the soldiers began to search the prisoners one by one. What would be the fate of the priest when the envelope containing the Hosts was found? Too well they knew what punishment would be given him.

And what unspeakable irreverence would be done to the Sacred Hosts! Down the line the S.S. troops contemptuously searched each man, and finally came Father Lelior's turn. Into his pockets one after another the Nazi soldiers pried, and found the "evidence." Father Leloir stood erect, a trifle pale, but silently praying to the Lord whose Precious Body was within the folds of the white envelope. His companions trembled and grew faint.

With an insolent air the S.S. guard tore open the envelope. Several prisoners gasped. Father Leloir stared in open amazement-as the Nazi soldiers threw the envelope scornfully to the ground saying: "Just an empty envelope." Just an empty envelope! The Hosts had disappeared! To prevent the desecration of the Sacred Hosts and to save the priest and his fellow Catholics from certain punishment, perhaps death, Our Lord had worked this "little miracle!"

From the Immaculata Magazine - Eucharistic Adoration Issue

24) One of the last Sundays (June 21st or 28th, 1970) at the seven o'clock Mass, in the Beauceville church (Quebec, Canada), the parish priest, Father Charles Eugene Houde (about 50 years old) was the celebrant. He had already told his parishioners that they were permitted to receive the Holy Host in their hands, according to the directives given by the Archbishop of Quebec. This day, before the Mass, he told his parishioners the following: "Henceforth, to avoid complications, everyone of you will receive the Host in your hand for Communion." That was against the Bishop's directions that allowed the people the freedom to take the Host either in their hand or in their mouth.

At the moment of the Communion of the Mass Father Houde turned to the people, holding the Ciborium in his hand. Before he had time to take a single Host and take a single step, about fifty consecrated Hosts flew out of the Ciborium by themselves. They went up into the air, circling themselves around and around the priest, then slowly fell to the ground.

Father Houde was so struck by the prodigy that his face turned white as snow and for a few minutes he remained motionless. Being interiorly inspired he said to the faithful who were approaching the altar, "Henceforth, all of you will receive the Holy Host on your tongue, not in your hand, because God just gave us a sign."

The priest knelt down and picked the Holy Hosts scattered on the carpet, and distributed Holy Communion. Back in the presbytery he said, "Never again in my life will I give Holy Communion in the hand."

25) At a Parish where two priest were serving the community had made a promise to each other. One of the priest said to the other when the first one of us die to promise to celebrate masses and pray for him. Well when one of the priest died he seen a image of heard in a voice say why are you aren't celebrating mass or praying for me. The Priest spoke up and said well Father you just died this morning. What this tells me that a day in Purgatory must seem like a week.

THE SACRAMENT OF EXTREME UNCTION

"The effects of Extreme Unction," says the Council of Trent, "are the grace of the Holy Ghost, which in His goodness, takes away sins and whatever remains to be expiated, comforts and strengthens the soul by arousing in it great confidence in the mercy of God, helps it to bear more easily the pains and discomforts of sickness, and to resist the temptations of the devil, which is often expedient for the salvation of the soul." Instead of looking on this sacrament as an irrevocable sentence of death, it should be considered, rather, as a divine remedy for soul and body, which is more efficacious than any human aid. It should be received before the sick person is at death's door, or as soon, indeed, as it is allowed to be received. In this way, it will be easier to follow than at the more dangerous time at the hour of death, and sometimes it even restores health to the body when God allows, and because of this, one will profit the beautiful and meaningful ceremonies and to derive greater profit from them.

Even if someone is unconscious he/she will still get the benefits of this Sacrament:

EXTREME UNCTION

HTTP://thetruesacraments.com/extreme-unction/

HERE ARE SOME HEALING STORIES

A) A SHORT STORY

Here I am again with a story. Carol remembered the article "I am the Good Shepherd, and she had told me yesterday about her brother-in-law (his name is Ben) who was telling her about his uncle that was on his death bed. He decided to bring in a picture of the Good Shepherd to show him, and he got scared and asked to have a Priest.

B) FROM BARBRA & MICHAEL

Here is a big answer to prayers ... thanks be to God. Our daughter-in-law, Laura's mother, was dying last week in the Ottawa hospital. Read this: "Paul Sarty told us last night that he canceled his appointment with the undertaker and didn't need the list of 10 people allowed at the funeral these days. As I had told you, Kathy Sarty received Extreme Unction Wednesday night. She had been unconscious for three weeks. When the Priest walked in, her eyes opened and looked at him the whole time while he was giving her the Sacraments. Then she closed her eyes. Laura and Paul arrived Thursday and the doctors told them that they would be unplugging her that morning and that she would die because her lungs had already atrophied. They were given 10 minutes to say their goodbyes. She was unhooked. Three hours later they were told she was breathing on her own. Yesterday she was sitting up and asking to go home. She is now out of ICU. Thanks be to Our dear Lord and His blessed Mother.

C) I had this article told to me a few years ago, so I will tell you the best I can. This healing happened in the U.S.A. I was told that there was a lady who couldn't attend Mass because the doctor told her that she would never walk again and never get out of the bed. Someone had approached a Priest and asked him if he would address this lady. The Priest gave her Extreme Unction and she was cured, and is now walking about.

D) The same Priest was asked again to give Extreme Unction to a lady that had incurable cancer on her face. The doctor even gave her a paper telling her. She eventually got cured. Someone then said to the Priest, "I know for sure you are a holy Priest."

E) A family that had been going to Mass here now, both having passed away, received the Sacrament of Extreme Unction. Her son had talked to me and I got in touch with a Priest to go see his mother. The Priest had given her Extreme Unction and when he finished, he missed something and had to complete the whole thing again. As soon as he finished, she then passed away.

F) One of our friends Frances was about to have an operation on her Esophagus which only 5% come out it alive as was told to by her surgeon. We decided to take Father Ahern and she was able have Extreme Unction. We were home at the time when her husband called us and that she out of the operation room. We decided to go to Halifax (2 hours away) to visit her. When we arrived she was rocking back and fourth {sort conscienceless} with her hands to the railings (loosely). Carol said she was saying Hail Mary, and as soon as she woke up she said to Carol I am OK and you can go home.

G) An amazing story to tell you. Carol's aunt (Agnes) was in the hospital and was unconscious. Her cousin and her husband had gone to visit her (aunt), when thy were on the floor where she was resting, the nurse told them that she had died. Later that day they went the Funeral Parlor to make arrangements, they told them she wasn't there. Called the Hospital and she was in bed, still unconscious. She hadn't died and they placed her in another room, they called up the priest Father Driscol {Presbyter). Carol and I went to visit her, and the daughter told Carol that the {priest} didn't do anything and said her mother always wanted Extreme Unction (The Last Rites). Father Mersereau was living with us then, and Aunt Agnes was able to have her wish.

H) Bill mentioned to me back in the early 60s, my dad lost 90% of his vision due to a nerve disease called neuritis. Over the next few years, he lost a lot of his hearing too, so that he had to use hearing aids.

I) In the early 80s, mom and dad decided to go to St. Anne de Beaupre on the train. They both had a wonderful time. Mom told me later that, on the way home on the train, she looked over at dad, and he was holding his hearing aids in his hand and looking at them with astonishment. He told her that he could hear perfectly now. After they got home, he also said that he could now see perfectly. A few days later he went to see the doctor, and there was no sign that he had ever had neuritis. He had perfect 20/20 vision.

J) Dear Leo & Carol;

I want to share this with you. My mother had blood-flow for almost for 40 years ! My parents were married 50 years in 1979 and they went with 3 of their grandchildren for the first time to Lourdes on pilgrimage. (June 1979) As is the custom pilgrims can partake of the bath-facilities and so did my parents of course. They all went home again after the pilgrimage and then my mother after a while discovered that her blood-flow had stopped.. Thanks to Our Lady. In 1956 I went as a young boy on a large pilgrimage, 3 train loads full, to Lourdes as a rover-scout and brancadier helping the sick. When arriving there the sick were grumbling and moaning when one got some pain or discomfort. After the 9 days at Lourdes we had to place the sick back into the coupes of the train, sometimes through the windows and of course sometimes it happened that some disabled got a bump or two (unavoidable) -- BUT here is the BIGGEST miracle of Lourdes --- there was absolutely NO grumbling nor moaning heard ANYWHERE among the sick, even when there was some discomfort felt by them. Everybody was "in high spirits". The change in character was totally changed during the stay --- Thanks to Our Lady.

O Mary Immaculate conceived, pray for us.

God bless and love you.

William (pr)1

CAUSES

A great movement of Apostasy is being organized in every country for the establishment of a ONE-WORLD-CHURCH, which shall have neither dogmas, nor hierarchy, nor discipline for the mind, nor curb from the passions, and which, under the protest of freedom and human dignity would bring back to the world, the rein of legalized cunning and force, the expression of the weak, and of those who toil and suffer.

15 Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. 16 By their fruits you shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistle ? (Matthew 7:15 -16)

24 For there shall arise false Christs and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders, insomuch as to deceive (if possible) even the elect. (Matthew 24:24)

I THE BEGINNING

1 The Beginning

2 Early Years

We Begin at the time of the Old Testament:

15) And the Lord took man, and put him in a paradise of pleasure, to dress and keep it.

16) And commanded him, saying: Of every tree of paradise thou shalt eat.

17) But the tree of knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat. For in what day soever thou shalt eat of it, thou shalt die the death. Then the Lord cast a deep sleep upon Adam, and when he was fast asleep, he took one of his ribs and filled up flesh for it. And then the Lord filled the rib, which he took from Adam, into a woman, and brought her to Adam. (Genesis 2: 15,16,17,22)

1) Now the serpent was more subtle than any of the beasts of the earth which the Lord God had made. And he said to the woman: Why hath God commanded you, that you should not eat of every tree of paradise?

2) And the woman answered him, saying: Of the fruit of the trees that are in paradise we do eat;

3) But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of paradise, God hath commanded us that we should not eat; and that we should not touch it, lest perhaps we die.

4) And the serpent (Lucifer) said to the woman: No, you shall not die the death.

5) For God doth know that in what day soever you shall eat thereof, your eyes shall be opened and you shall be as Gods, knowing good and evil. Meaning, "Do your own will."
(Genesis 3:1-5)

Adam squandered the first opportunity and he lost it for the whole human race. After the redemption through Jesus Christ, each human being would be personally and solely responsible whether or not he would dwell in Heaven. It is fitting that the Woman, Who brought the Redeemer into this world, should be the hostess, as it were, to welcome all those good noble souls Her Son enabled to find the way into Heaven. (Catholic Devotions)

We can see our first parents were very weak, but just ask yourself, would we have been any different from them? But Our Lord, who is our Creator, still loved His creations, and would give us another chance, but this time he gave us His Mother. When Jesus therefore had seen his Mother and the disciple standing, whom He loved, He said to his Mother: Woman, behold thy Son. (St. John 19: 26)

B EARLY YEARS

We were taught by the "Sisters of Charity Nuns" from Boston, Massachusetts. Even though we were taught Catechism with the nuns, it was taken for granted that we were supposed to be the ones that should have known and kept the Faith when we went out to face the world and reviewed our religion. Then came Vatican II in 1962, and with it came the many changes in the Catholic Church, and the years that followed were to become disastrous. We are now in the era of fun and joy and, of course, it settled into Materialism. God's Commandment, "Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day" means that Sunday is the Lord's Day and was given to us to focus on attending Mass and is a day of rest and also to spend with one's family. But the attending of Sunday Mass now has become a Sunday of shopping and sports, with even less and less attention to serving God.

OTHER REASONS FOR THE LOSS OF FAITH

- 1) Not understanding the true meaning of Papal Authority.
  - 2) The meaning of "Transubstantiation".
  - 3) Through Blind Obedience they were able to brainwash us.
  - 4) Vatican II - a false Council (heretical).
- A) The very most important part of our Faith should have been to know what was meant by "Transubstantiation" - the Sacrifice on the Cross is the same as the Sacrifice on the Altar.
- B) Not understanding the true meaning of Papal Authority. C) We never had a Bible or Missal to follow the Mass.
- D) There should of been a Book for Catholic history also.
- 1) Even in high school there was nothing ever mentioned to us about the moral problems that teenagers could come across. There was no type of family education that would have been helpful before and after marriage.
  - 2) When I grew up I never heard of those stories concerning Priests that were in scandal (sexual abuse), not until years later. In those days if one ever accused a Priest of these deviations, your parents would not believe you.
  - 3) I never heard any of the nuns mention to us to not to associate with Protestants and not to get involved in marrying them either.
  - 4) Then there were many mixed marriages, however, while in many of those couples were not of the same religion, it usually happened that the Catholic would go to the spouse's church or would leave it altogether and in such cases, the children would loose their teaching of God.
  - 5) With all of the false teachings that were given to us by false teachers, we were cheated out of our religion over all of the years. These things that happened is the main source of the reason why Catholics lost their Faith.
  - 6) We didn't hear about the Apparitions of Our Lady such as the Apparitions of Our Lady of Good Success - - - Our Lady of La Salette - - - Our Lady of Lourdes and Our Lady of Fatima and etc., and also many of the Saints, who would have explained everything we had to know.

7) Concerning the Mass, I will be honest with you to say, and also am ashamed to say, that I truly didn't understand the meaning of the Mass at that time, which is, that the Holy Mass is the Sacrifice of the Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ, Who Offers Himself on the Altar, through the Priest in the same manner as He offered Himself on the Cross to save the world. One can imagine that other Catholics in those days were in the same position as I was. And now . . . what of those who are living in these times?

8) Then came the time that we were going to be on our own and raise our own families. "Are we to blame for ignorance of the most important part of our "FAITH"?"

II WHAT WAS THE CAUSE

- A) Loss of Faith
- B) Transubstantiation
- C) Evolution

A) Loss of Faith

Who would have believed how we could be fooled? The best example was, when they got us to follow the Mass when the Priest started facing us. Why couldn't those Priests realize that when facing the Cross, Transubstantiation brings Our Lord down from the Cross. How could those Priests of the old days just give up and leave, or even remain with the New Order of the Mass? Had they forgotten the whole Catholic Faith and the Holy and Divine Liturgy? The Church's whole liturgy finds itself in 1376, when the Council of Trent summarizes the Catholic faith by declaring, "This change, the Holy Catholic Church has fittingly and properly called Transubstantiation."206.

B) Transubstantiation

Transubstantiation in the Catholic Faith is understood as the conversion of the substance of the Eucharistic elements into the Body and Blood of Christ at Consecration in the Holy Mass, only the appearances of bread and wine still remaining. "Don't pray at the Holy Mass - but pray the Holy Mass!" quote from His Holiness, St. Pope Pius X

"For this was I born, and for this came I into the world; that I should give testimony to the truth. Everyone that is of the truth heareth my voice." (John 18:37)

B) Evolution

Human evolution is the THEORY OF a claimed lengthy process of change by which people originated from ape-like ancestors. There is ZERO scientific evidence/proof to show that the physical and behavioral traits shared by all people has originated from ape-like ancestors. There are "pseudoscientists" (Atheists) who want us to believe, that we have evolved from a monkey, fish, or blob and 'evolved' over a period of approximately six million years. I am still waiting to hear whether these "scientists" have evolved into the first talking monkeys. Catholics KNOW that the human body is the great creation by God the Father Himself and all he asked of us was to Know Him, Love Him, and to Serve Him.

III LOSS OF DOCTRINE

- a) Faith    b) The Faith And Tradition    c) Dogma
- c) Modernism    d) Oath of Modernism
- e) Papal Infallibility    f) We Were Deceived
- g) Our Lady of La Salette --- Mentioned
- h) Our Lady Of La Salette --- On Materialism

POPE BENEDICT XV - Let nothing new be introduced, but only what has been handed down.

FAITH - Is concerned with many things which we cannot perceive by our senses and cannot grasp with our understanding.

a) Faith

Christian Faith is the firm conviction, arrived at with the Grace of God, that everything that Jesus Christ taught on earth is true, as well as, everything which the Catholic Church teaches by the commission she has received from Him. The Christian Faith of the family starts at home. As children grow up, it is necessary for them to be taught their religion; they receive this with a true Catholic Catechism and Home Schooling. Even though one is taught Catechism, one still has to compete with materialism and the electronic world that is corrupting the generations of today. I am a firm believer that for one to have a strong Faith, it is necessary to have:

- 1) a sound basic knowledge of the Catholic Faith;
- 2) a pure conscience; and
- 3) a strong willpower and a solid conviction. This is a sure way to succeed.

b) The Faith and Tradition

The truths of our faith were received even by Jesus Himself as a tradition or a handing down to Him from His Father. Jesus answered them and said, "My doctrine is not mine but His that sent me." (John 7:16)

Jesus said to them, "Amen, Amen, I say to you, the Son cannot do anything of Himself, but what He see the Father doing: for what things soever He doeth, these, the Son also doth in like manner." - (John 5:19)

"For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father who sent me; He gave me commandment what I should say and what I should speak." - (John 12:49)

Likewise, Our Lord hands the Faith down to us as a tradition through those of our lawful superiors who are obedient to the Faith. "Because the words which thou gavest to me, I have given to them." - (John 17:8)

"Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day."

c) Dogma

- I Holy Trinity                      II) The Resurrection
(III) The Ascension                IV) The Blessed Sacrament

(I) Holy Trinity: The greatest Mystery of the Church is Three Persons in one God. We cannot, with our feeble understanding, grasp the doctrine of the Blessed Trinity, and it is therefore called "a Mystery". Here is an idea: Take a sheet of typing paper, fold twice in equal pieces, making one piece. When it is opened, you have three sections.

II) The Resurrection: It is miraculous. No natural power can bring it about. Nature causes by generating, never restoring. Hence, while it is true that the separated soul naturally tends to be united to the body, nature itself cannot bring about a re-union. Divine power is required.

III) The Ascension: The Ascension establishes that it was the crucified Jesus and Christ, the Incarnate Son, who rose from the dead. Christ the man is none other than Christ the Son who is the living Christ we know, and we in fact know no other. So it was He who rose from the dead in the Ascension as it is in the Incarnation.

IV) The Blessed Sacrament: The presence of the Body and Blood of Christ under the appearance of bread and wine is a "Mystery" because our feeble reason cannot comprehend it. This is a personal grace that our Lord gave to us. The Eucharist, in a special way, causes us to attain heavenly glory. Then Jesus said to them: Amen, Amen I say unto you: Except you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you shall not have life in you. (John 6:54)

d) Saint Pius X On Modernism

(The liberal theological tendency of Protestantism in the 19th - 20th century).

St. Pope Pius X warned us about Modernism and fought against it, trying to dispense those who were responsible, but never completely eradicating those responsible. One of the most treasured doctrines of the Roman Papacy is that of Infallibility. This Dogma was issued by Pope Pius IX and was approved and defined by the Vatican I Council in 1870. The Council document declares that, "When the Roman Pontiff speaks ex cathedra, he possesses by the divine assistance promised to him in blessed Peter, that Infallibility which the Divine Redeemer willed His Church to enjoy in defining doctrine concerning faith or morals." Therefore, such definitions of the Roman Pontiff are of themselves, and not by the consent of the Church, irredeemable.

(First Dogmatic . . . , 1870, 4.9).

e) Oath of Saint Pius X On Modernism

"I promise that I shall keep all these articles faithfully, entirely, and sincerely, and guard them inviolate; in no way deviating from them in teaching or in any way in word or in writing. Thus, I promise. This I swear. So help me God"

The Oath Against Modernism -

traditionalcatholic.net Full Script

Here is a good example: Two good friends of mine, who have since passed away, mentioned to me about two Priests who were brothers; Traditional Priests, Fathers Jack and John. It was said that these two Priests were very holy and then came Vatican II. Father Jack, who became Bishop and was involved with the Council sent his brother Father John to the U.S.A. to study the New Mass. When Father John came back from the U.S.A., he told someone that he was sick and tired of Protestantism, but unfortunately never left and probably lost his FAITH. Actually Carol had to correct him for a couple of heresies that he spoke in Church. The following Sunday in his homily he said, "I'm not the only heretic here." When he left, he had asked Carol to pray for him. He has since had passed away.

f) Papal Infallibility

The Pope is preserved from the possibility of error, "When in the exercise of his office as shepherd and teacher of all Christians, in virtue of his supreme apostolic authority, he defines a doctrine. The dogmatic definition of papal infallibility says that a pope has "full and supreme power of jurisdiction over the whole Church" and when he "speaks ex cathedra; that is, when, in the exercise of his office as shepherd and teacher of all Christians, in virtue of his supreme apostolic authority, he defines a doctrine concerning faith or morals to be held by the whole Church. He possesses, by the divine assistance promised to him in blessed Saint Peter, that infallibility which the Divine Redeemer willed for his Church, to enjoy in defining doctrine concerning faith or morals."

Thus, papal infallibility doesn't mean that a Pope is infallible in absolutely everything he says or does. Instead, certain conditions must exist first: he must be speaking "ex cathedra" and he must be speaking on something specific to the faith or morals of the church.

This assertion of papal infallibility creates a great deal of controversy both inside and outside the Catholic Church. Many Catholics will abandon the church because of it, including some leaders. Many non-Catholics will criticize the Vatican and Pope Pius IX (1846-1878) for assuming far too much authority and power for themselves.

g) Were We Deceived

CHRISTIAN MAN NOT MADE IN GOD'S IMAGE = ATHEISM

NO MIRACLES = NO ATONEMENT

MODERNISTS = NO VIRGIN BIRTH

NO DEITY = NO RESURRECTION

BIBLE NOT INFALLIBLE = AGNOSTICISM

1) Over 50 (1962) years ago, John XXIII initiated the Second Vatican Council. He said it was time to "throw open the windows of the church and let the fresh air of the spirit blow through."

2) The Papal Tiara is a sign of a true authority and was given by Paul VI on Nov. 13th, 1964 to the United Nations, which then sold it.

3) Then, there was the intention of Pope Paul VI with regard to what is now commonly called the "New Mass", to reform the Catholic liturgy in such a way that it should almost coincide with the Protestant liturgy. During the Concilium (the group for the construction of the New Mass) Pope Paul VI invited six (6) Protestant advisors, besides the main participants under presidency of Fr. Annibale Bugnini; the main author of the Novus Ordo Missae (New Mass).

4) In 1972, on the feast of Saints Peter and Paul, Pope Paul VI delivered a sermon that startled the world. He had the feeling that - "from some fissure the 'Smoke of Satan' had entered the temple of God."

5) On Sept 28, 1978, Pope John Paul I died suddenly after reigning only just 33 days.

6) John Paul II was a man of the world and not of God.

7) Benedict XVI. The Pope ends state of limbo after 800 years. "Babies who die before being baptized will no longer be trapped in Limbo, following a decision by the Pope to abolish the concept from Roman Catholic teaching."

8) "No Hell": "A hell without fire and brimstone." That's the Roman Catholic Church's latest view on what life in the hereafter might be like. And it is straight from Pope Francis, who made the statement yesterday in the Vatican City.

"At this morning's mass at the Basilica of St. John's, news of the Pope's statement caught most of the people completely by surprise." "The Pope said what?" asked one man. "I'd have to see it before I believe it."

"No Hell": Pope - Canada - CBC News

h) Our Lady of La Salette --- Mentioned

"All the civil governments will have one and the same plan, which will be to abolish and do away with every religious principle, to make way for materialism, atheism, spiritualism and vice of all kinds. In the year 1865, there will be desecration of holy places. In convents, the devil will make himself like the king of all hearts. May those in charge of religious communities be on their guard against the people they must receive, for the devil will resort to all his evil tricks to introduce sinners into religious orders; for disorder and the love of carnal pleasures will be spread all over the earth."

i) Our Lady Of La Salette --- On Materialism

1) Materialism is defined as "the preoccupation with material things rather than intellectual or spiritual things." If a Christian is preoccupied with material things, it is definitely wrong. That is not to say we cannot have material things, but the obsession with acquiring and caring for "stuff" is a dangerous thing for the Christian.

2) Men shall be lovers of themselves, covetous, haughty, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, wicked. (2 Timothy 3:2)

"May blind spirits be illumined by the light of truth and justice ..." Pius XI asked during the Marian Feasts of the Jubilee of the Redemption, "...so that those who have gone astray into error may be brought back to the straight path; that a just liberty may be granted the Church everywhere, and that an era of peace and true prosperity may come upon all the nations. But the world, which today affords so many justifiable reasons for pride and hope, is also undergoing a terrible temptation to materialism, which has been denounced by our predecessors and ourselves on many occasions.

This materialism is not confined to that condemned philosophy which dictates the policies and economy of a large segment of mankind. It rages also in a love of money which creates ever greater havoc as modern enterprises expand, and which, unfortunately, determines many of the decisions which weigh heavy on the life of the people. It finds expression in the cult of the body, in excessive desire for comforts, and in flight from all the austerities of life. It encourages scorn for human life; even for life which is destroyed before seeing the light of day.

This materialism is present in the unrestrained search for pleasure, which flaunts itself shamelessly and tries, through reading matter and entertainments, to seduce souls which are still pure. It shows itself in lack of interest in one's brother, in selfishness which crushes him, injustice which deprives him of his rights -- in a word, in that concept of life which regulates everything exclusively in terms of material prosperity and earthly satisfaction."

IV OBEDIENCE?

- a) Blind Obedience
- b) Obedience And The Faith
- c) Infiltration
- d) Some Rotten Fruits Of Vatican II
- a) Blind Obedience

Many people believe that true obedience is blind. That is, they believe if a person in authority makes a decision or gives a command, that decision or command should be followed without question, simply because a person in authority gave it. Within the Catholic Church, many laity believe that whatever a Priest or Bishop says should be followed without question. With all the years that have passed since Vatican II started, the Church (counterfeit) is in total disarray. From the time Vatican II began, they slowly penetrated on our obedience to the Catholic Church. Those that were supposed to defend our Faith are the cause of its destruction. They at the top that are involved in false religions (Rome) and are paving the way to join those religions.

b) Obedience And The Faith

It is the teaching of the Church that obedience is part of justice; one of the four cardinal virtues, which are in turn subordinate to the theological virtues of faith, hope, and charity. Faith is greater than obedience! Therefore, if obedience acts to harm the faith, then a Catholic has a duty not to obey his superior. "Now sometimes the things commanded by a superior are against God, therefore, superiors are not to be obeyed in all things." St. Thomas Aquinas, Doctor of the Church. - Summa Theologica II-IIQ. 104 - "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach a gospel to you besides that which we have preached to you, let him be anathema." (Galatians 1:8) Lord that which also I handed down to you." (Corinthians 11:23)

c) Infiltration

Over the many years they (the elite of Satan) have been gradually destroying the Catholic Church piece by piece, they knew they couldn't destroy the church from the outside but only from within. When Maximilian Kolbe first came to Rome, in 1917, he saw a parade, a public manifestation of Freemasons. They were carrying placards and on their placards it was written: "Satan will rule from the Vatican. The Pope will be his slave." How would they bring that about? What was their program? It was the Freemasons themselves who declared with the utmost arrogance: "We are going to destroy the Church by means of holy obedience." It is easy to understand what we were told by the Apparitions of La Salette and Fatima namely that we are on course according to the Prophecies. Catholics of my generation have lost the Faith, and it seems they want to stay in the counterfeit church. Today I can understand why the children are at a loss mostly because of the modernistic teaching they receive, even the school education is a fraud. After all these years I have come to the conclusion for some of the reasons why people lost the Faith.

a) They are believing that there is only one God. (False) 1st Commandment - I am the Lord Thy God Thou shalt not have strange Gods before me.

b) They also believe that everyone's religion is the same. (false). The True Church is One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic.

c) In a truly amazing reversal that has occurred since Vatican II, Catholic (and others) now believe in the Doctrine of Universal Salvation. Everyone is saved; no one goes to hell. If you don't believe this has happened, just go to the typical (Novus Ordo) funeral. There, the deceased are canonized on the spot and declared to be enjoying heavenly bliss in God's presence, and heaven forbid that there should be any mention of hell or purgatory.

(Daily Catholic)

d) A good friend of mine had mentioned to me one time, if everyone's going to heaven, what would be the sense of even going to church?

e) At the New Mass, the people enjoy their service in English and don't realize that the True Mass was always said in Latin because Latin was a dead language and the words of Christ could not be changed. One could visit any Church around the world and go to the True Mass.

f) If you now have any conversation with any of our brethren, they will tell we must change with the sign of times. Modernism

g) A friend of mine, whom I went to school with years ago, mocks the Bible and he is another one that says, "That Hell is on earth."

h) As I was talking to someone I knew, I had mentioned to him about the Latin Mass. His reply was, "Why is it necessary to receive communion?" Everyday I had asked him, "Do you remember Transubstantiation?" I felt there was no reason to continue the conversation.

d) Some Rotten Fruits Of Vatican II

Experiences of those who lost the faith

1) I tried to talk to my sister concerning what was going on with the church and she said that we have to follow the Pope. Now, on the other hand, my aunt was told by her mother who explained about Papal Infallibility and she said that the Pope cannot be in error. We know that is false.

2) An older lady told a friend of mine that all religions are equal and all religions have the same God.

3) When I mentioned to one of my friends that Hell exists, she said, "Nobody believes that anymore." That's what Bishop Fulton Sheen said was Satan's greatest accomplishment.

4) When my brother-in-law passed away (Anglican) I was so amazed because I saw so many Catholics that had gone up to receive the meal {Bread} - some receiving in possible sin without confession.

5) Just the other day, I met a couple that I knew growing up and attending St. Charles School and I had asked his wife, "Would you still attend church if they allow same sex marriage?" She said that she wouldn't leave.

6) Carol had met a lady that did go to the Chapel (Mystical Rose) for a few Masses and she asked her why she hadn't returned. The lady she said that she wanted to go along with the crowd.

7) About 5 years ago I tried to explain to my aunt about when the Pope speaks and what is the definition of Papal Infallibility, but her mother explained to her that the Pope can do no wrong {Incorrect}. Papal Infallibility, in Roman Catholic theology, is the doctrine that the Pope, acting as supreme teacher and under certain conditions, cannot err when he teaches in matters of faith or morals.

8) I was having a coffee at a local restaurant and I had asked someone I knew if he was going to the Sunday service. He mentioned that he wouldn't go back until the Priest that was there had left. I said to him, "Then you might get a woman for Priest." He said, "That's okay. A Priest should be allowed to be married." I said, "Christ wasn't married." This was his remark: "We weren't living in those times. Maybe he was married."

9) Carol had been involved with the Catholic Women's League (CWL) for a few years and on one occasion the CWL had invited a gentleman who was a Protestant. They invited him to attend a Mass and wanted his opinion about becoming a Catholic. When the service was over, they approached him to see what he thought of the Mass. His response was to them, "This service is Protestant."

10 Since the Catholic school was a long distance for many, some of the children never had any Catholicism classes and never went to Sunday school, and never had a chance.

11) There used to be many mixed marriages in those days, but the problem occurs when one of the spouses (Catholic) would not keep the Faith and the children grew up without any religious training.

Our Lady told us on May 13th, 1917
"Do not be afraid, I will not harm you" and
"I come from Heaven."

V OUR LADY IS OUR MOTHER

- a) Our Mother
- b) Hatred Of The Rosary
- c) The Rosary Story
- d) Our Mother

Jesus looked down to His mother and John was beside her.
(John 19:26-27)

26 When therefore, Jesus had seen His Mother and the disciple standing whom He loved, he saith to His Mother: Woman, behold thy son. 27 After that, He saith to the disciple, behold Thy Mother. And from that hour, the disciple took her to his own.

Since that day, Jesus had given to us His Mother and he would do anything for her. This was done at the Wedding at Cana when the porter said there was no wine left. What did Our Lady say? "Do as he tells you". Jesus had not yet performed any miracles, but he obeyed His Mother. Our Lady is the one who will crush the head of Satan and Jesus prefers us to pray to His Mother (our Mother) as she is the key to our salvation, by means of the Holy Rosary. Begin to follow the life of Jesus through the Rosaries.

SPIRITUALITY

St. Louis De Mont fort (1706): "It would hardly be possible for me to put into words how much Our Lady thinks of the Holy Rosary and of how she vastly prefers it to all other devotions. Neither can I sufficiently express how highly she rewards those who work to preach the devotion, to establish it and spread it, nor on the other hand, how firmly she punishes those who work against it."

(The Secret of the Rosary, p. 27)

b) Hatred Of The Rosary

The most damaging aspect is the hatred for "Our Lady and the Rosary." Who would have believed that those Priests of old would tamper with the "Rosary"? Next to the Holy Mass is the Holy Rosary (my own experiences below).

{1} I worked in Mulgrave, NS, in a factory for the production of fish capsules. I had been going to the New Mass every Wednesday while I was there and thought it would be a good idea to promote the Rosary. I would dare to say that I was about 59 and all the others were older than me. One night after the service, I had asked Father Angus MacDonald if we could recite the Rosary before Mass. He said I must ask the people and they were excited to recite it. The saddest memory of this was happened when they arrived with their Rosaries in their hands and the Priest said for me not to recite it with them.

{2} Father Mersereau was living in Moncton at the time in what they called "The Castle" which used to be a Convent for Nuns. Since Father had lived there, we decided to recite the Rosary every Saturday with the residents who were living there. Well, the first Saturday was a hit. We had Rosaries, Brown Scapulars, medals and info, and even had two Protestant ladies that also wanted to pray. We were surely surprised! The following Saturday, as we were going to celebrate Mass, one of the ladies, whose son was there, worked for the Bishop - and now you know the rest of the story.

{3} Carol, myself, and a friend of ours, Terry, had gone to a funeral at the church. We were there about an hour before, in lots of time not to bother anyone. When we started to pray the Rosary, an ex-nun who was married, went and complained to the Priest. Yes, the same Priest (Father Jack). Well, he started marching with his hands behind his back and went to end of the church, and when he came back he stopped in front of us and was about to say, "You can't ... ," - something came over him and he left in a hurry.

{4} We had gone to see our lawyer a few years ago and we tried to tell him about what has happened to the Church. We suggested that one should start reciting the Holy Rosary. You should have seen the look on his face! It was as if he didn't want to hear about it. Besides that, he had two uncles that were Traditional Priests, but they got caught in the Vatican II trap.

{5} We were at an Anti-abortion Rosary Rally in Moncton, N.B. around 1990 and there was a Novus Ordo Nun there, and she said to us that we were praying the Rosary too loud and that it may offend the Protestants.

{6} At another time we were picketing at the Moncton City Hospital against abortion. We had a large image of Our Lady of Guadalupe and there were nurses there that were very interested in what we had to say. The same nun I had mentioned earlier was up in the hospital chapel by herself and when she came down to the front of the hospital, she said to us, "I guess I should have been here everybody."

Think about it - this plan to take over the Catholic Church was achieved when they {the enemies} were able to destroy the Church from within. This quest didn't start just recently in history, but probably began in the time of Adam and Eve.

We realized that Vatican II was the game they needed to play to get all to surrender to blind obedience.

Over the past 20 years, I have been trying to figure out why some left the church after all these years, and one thing is for sure, I only found out years later when I could see the effects of Vatican II. I would say that it was because of the ones that truly did not understand Transubstantiation.

After all the years of those Priest who participated in the bringing down of Jesus from the Cross have lost their Faith Also, what is confusing is the fact that they knew that one does not face the people to celebrate Holy Mass. Shouldn't they have had a clue of this when they put a table in front of the Altar?

Many people were upset at what had happened to the Catholic structure, but because there was no other place to go, and not knowing that there were people out there that would have taken care of them, instead they left everything behind and left. The rest of them joined the "New Church".

PLUS:

- a) Priest & Nuns left to get married.
- b) Homosexuals & Pedophiles rose out of the closets.
- c) My opinion is that some of these men were brought into the Church by their parents because they knew that they were different and were afraid if these men had been sent to both World Wars that they would definitely not come back (because of their situation).

Those who followed the Faith in the old days are very limited now because of age and many have departed. In those days they held the strength of Faith. It wasn't many years ago that they planned the New World Religion. Who planned it you may ask?

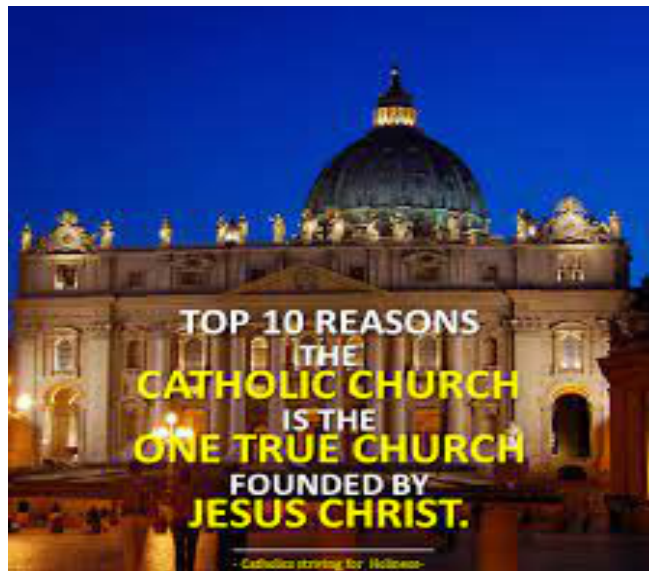

What about us that are still here and went through the destruction years? After all, we were the ones who were brought up with the Nuns for schooling and Catechism. The only theory I have come up with is that because we were educated with Faith, that it was taken for granted that we were provided with the entire Faith. This is not true, as we were given a review of our religion and didn't know everything. Thinking back, I realize that we were missing something.

- 1) There should have been a Catholic History book.
- 2) There was never any reference to a Bible. My friend May-Anne said that she was told that it would be a sin to have a Bible.

3) We should have had a Mass Missal while growing up. Most important was the fact we did not hear about all of the Apparitions of Our Blessed Mother, who is Our Mother.

You have to realize that it is our duty as Catholics to do all we can with Charity and to our best of our ability, to bring our brethren back the Faith.

{I} 10 REASONS WHY THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IS THE ONE TRUE CHURCH FOUNDED BY JESUS CHRIST.

Other Christian groups derive their elements of truth from the fullness of the Catholic Church.

This article contains executive summaries on different topics regarding our Catholic faith and culture. I decided that it is worthwhile to share to you as it would help our doubting Catholic brethren clear up the clutter they might have in their minds as regards this topic and avoid being deceived by the proselytizing attempts of persons from different groups or sects.

Footnote: {I} 10 Reasons Why The Catholic Church Is The True Church \(Back to Page 15\)

1. The Bible is a Catholic book.

It was Pope Damasus' Council of Rome in 382 AD which drew up the official list of the books of the Bible. Thus, Luther felt "compelled to concede" that his Protestant Bible was "received" from the Catholic Church. All Christians today trust the authority of the Catholic Church that what they read is the true Word of God and not a false text.

2. The Bible refutes the "Bible alone" principle.

The bible says that the "Word of the Lord" is spoken (Jeremias 25:3), not just written. St. Paul urged us to "hold to traditions which you were taught by us , either by word of mouth or by letter" (2-Thessalonians 2:15) The Bible also tell of a Council's authority, whee peter settled a doctrinal dispute and declared "we believe" (Acts 15).

The Bible teaches that not the Bible or the Protestant interpreters of the 16th century and of the present, but "the Church is the pillar and the bulwark of the truth" (1 Timothy 3:15). It also warns against "twisted" interpretations of Scriptures (2 Peter 3:16). While the Church has one teaching, there are now 43,000 evangelical groups with 2.3 added daily. Their views on the Trinity, on gays, etc. contradict each other. Since truth (e.g. Jesus is God) cannot be falsehood at the same time, real falsehoods are sadly being taught among these groups.

3. Jesus built his Church on a man he named Rock.

Jesus said "On this rock, I will build my Church and I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven" (Matthew 16:18-19). Jesus changed the name of Simon to Petros, Greek for Rock. He gave Petros or Peter, "the keys of the kingdom", which the Jews knew to be the power of a prime minister of the King and chief teacher (Isaias 22:22). Jesus told him alone to "feed my sheep" (John 21:15-17). The Bible shows him leading the Church. •The early Christians referred to Peter's Roman Church as "presiding" (Ignatius, 1st -2nd), "of superior origin" and standard of "true Faith" (Irenaeus, 2nd c.), "Chair of Peter", "the principal" (Cyprian, 2nd-3rd c.), and "the primacy" (Augustine, 4th-5th c.). While the Catholic Church can give evidence of its unbroken link to Jesus and Peter, other Christian groups began their existence with their founders like Luther (1517), J. Smith (1830), and F. Manalo (1914)

4. Jesus and the Church are one.

It is not true the Catholic Church left the true Faith, since the Church is the body of Christ (1 Corinthians 12:27), and he is inseparable from his body. He promised that "I am with you always" evil "shall not prevail" against his Church (Matthew 16:18), and his Spirit "will guide you into all the truth" (John 16:13). He told his Church: "He who hears you hears me" (Luke 10:16).

5. The Bible says we are saved "not by faith alone".

The Bible used Luther's phrase "by faith alone" only once: "a man is justified by works and not by faith alone" (Jonas 2:24). The Bible also says that "what counts is faith working through love" (Galatians 5:6). While Catholics and Protestants agree that Jesus alone saves us, Luther in the 16th century inserted without basis the word "alone" in his German translation of (Romans 3:28) ("a man is justified by faith") in order to support his personal interpretation that a Christian is incapable of cooperating with God in his salvation.

6. The Bible and the early Christians believe in purgatory.

As shown in their tombstones, the early Christians followed the Bible: "Pray for the dead that they may be loosed from sins" (2 Maccabees 12:46), for "nothing unclean can enter heaven" (Apocalypse 21:27). It does not make sense to pray for the dead if they only go, as evangelicals say, either to heaven (with faith in Christ) or to hell (without faith). Jesus spoke about forgiveness in the age to come (Matthew 12:32) and St. Paul stated that those judged by God are "saved but as through fire" (1 Corinthians 3:13-15).

7. The Bible and the early Christians believe in the Catholic sacraments.

Jesus gave the Apostles the power to "forgive sins" (John 20:23). Peter taught that "Baptism now saves you" (1 Peter 3:21) and thus is not a mere inciter of faith. The Bible speaks about "anointing the sick with oil" (Jonas 5:14-15), two kinds of laying of hands (Acts 8:17; 2-Timothy 1:6), and marriage in the Lord (1 Cor 7:39). Jesus repeatedly said that "he who eats my flesh has eternal life". This is no figure of speech, for he did not give in when "many of his disciples" left due to this "hard saying" (John 6:48-68), and St. Paul taught that he who eats the bread unworthily is "guilty of profaning the Lord's body" (1 Corinthians 11:28). Ignatius of Antioch said "the Eucharist is the flesh of the Redeemer," Irenaeus "we receive the bread as Jesus", and Cyprian "Christ is our bread".

8) The Catholic Church is salt and light.

Modern secular historians of science, economics, university education, human rights, international law, hospitals and Western art are showing that Catholic priests, scientists and thinkers were behind the foundation and great achievements in these areas, acting as salt and light as Christ foretold (Matthew 5:13-14); Woods 2005). In his Church, he still works his miracles: Eucharistic bread turning into blood; appearances of Mary; heroic saints; cures and sacred images that are scientifically unexplained; saints with stigmata, powers of healing, bi location and prophecy, and incorruptible dead bodies.

9) The Catholic Church is Catholic.

Jesus "desires all men to be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth" (1 Timothy 2:4), thus his real Church is universal, evangelizing in all parts of the world.

10. Jesus and the Bible glorify his mother. Catholics do not worship Mary, but follow Jesus' ways. He obeyed the fourth commandment: Honor your father and mother. Honor in Hebrew is kaboom, which means to glorify. The Bible calls Mary "Mother of my Lord" (Lord = God) and says all generations will call her blessed (Luke 1:43.48). It shows that she is the New Ark of the Covenant, the woman clothed with the sun, crowned in heaven with twelve stars (Apocalypse 11:19-12:1). To honor his mother, Jesus' last message to us on the cross is: Behold, your mother. (John 19:27).

Footnote {II} 62 Reasons Not To Go To The New Mass

(Back to Page 17)

The following are 62 Reasons why, we cannot attend the New Mass wither in the vernacular or the Latin, whether facing the people or facing the tabernacle. Thus, for the same reasons, we adhere faithfully to the traditional Mass:

Because the New Mass is not an unequivocal Profession of Catholic Faith (which the traditional Mass is), it is ambiguous and Protestant. Therefore since we pray as we believe, it follows that we cannot pray with the New mass in Protestant fashion and still believe as Catholics!

Because the changes were not just slight ones but actually "deal with a fundamental renovation...a total change... a new creation." (Msgr. A. Bugnini, co-author of the New Mass.)

Because the New Mass leads us to think "that truths... can be changed or ignored without infidelity to that sacred deposit of doctrine to which the Catholic Faith is bound forever." **

Because the New Mass represents "a striking departure from the Catholic theology of the Mass as formulated in Session XXII of the Council of Trent" which, in fixing the "canons," provided an "insurmountable barrier to any heresy against the integrity of the Mystery." **

Because the difference between the two is not simply one of mere detail or just modification of ceremony, but "all that is of perennial value finds only a minor place (in the New Mass), if it subsists at all." **

Because "Recent reformers have amply demonstrated that fresh changes in the liturgy could lead to nothing but complete bewilderment in the faithful who already show signs of uneasiness and lessening of faith."

Because in times of confusion such as now, we are guided by the words of our Lord: "By their fruits you shall know them." Fruits of the New Mass are: 30% decrease in Sunday Mass attendance in U.S. (NY times 5/24/75), 43% decreased in France (Cardinal Marty), 50% decrease in Holland (NY Times 1/5/76).

Because "amongst the best of the clergy the practical result (of the New Mass) is an agonizing crisis of conscience..."

Because in less than seven years after the introduction of the New Mass, priests in the world decreased from 413,438 to 243,307—almost 50% (Holy See Statistics)

Because "The pastoral reasons adduced to support such a grave break with tradition... do not seem to us sufficient."

Because the New Mass does not manifest Faith in the Real Presence of our Lord—the traditional Mass manifests it unmistakable

Because the New mass confuses the REAL Presence of Christ in the Eucharist with His MYSTICAL Presence among us (promoting Protestant doctrine).

The New Mass blurs what ought to be a sharp difference between the HIERAEXHIS Priesthood and the common priesthood of the people (as does Protestantism).

The New Mass flavors the heretical theory that it is THE FAITH of the people and not THE WORDS OF THE PRIEST, which makes Christ present in the Eucharist.

The insertion of the Lutheran "Prayer of the Faithful" in the New Mass follows and puts forth the protestant Error that all of the people are priests.

The New Mass does away with the Confiteor of the priest, makes it collective with the people, thus promoting Luther's refusal to accept the Catholic teaching that the priest is judge, witness and intercessor with God The New Mass gives us to understand that the people can celebrate with the priest—which is against Catholic theology!

Six Protestant ministers collaborated in making up the New Mass (enclosed in this letter is a picture of them together).

Just as Luther did away with the Offertory—since it very clearly expressed the sacrificial, propitiatory character of the Mass—so also the New mass did away with it, reducing it to a simple Preparation of the Gifts.

Enough Catholic theology has been removed that Protestants can, while keeping their antipathy for the true Roman Catholic Church, use the text of the New Mass without difficulty. Protestant Minister Thurian (one of the six Protestant ministers who made up the New Mass) said that a fruit of the New Mass "will perhaps be that the non-Catholic communities will be able to celebrate the Lord's Supper using the same prayers as the Catholic Church." (La Croix 4/30/69).

The narrative manner of the Consecration in the New Mass infers that it is only a memorial and not a true sacrifice (Protestant thesis).

By grave omissions, the New mass leads us to believe that it is only a meal (Protestant doctrine) and not a sacrifice for the remission of sins (Catholic doctrine)

The changes such as: table instead of altar, facing people instead of the tabernacle, Communion in the hand, etc., emphasize Protestant doctrines (e.g. Mass is only a meal, priest only a president of the assembly, etc.).

Protestants themselves have said, "The new Catholic Eucharistic Prayers have abandoned the false perspective of sacrifice offered to God." ("a Croix 12/10/69).

We are faced with a dilemma: either we become Protestantized by worshiping with the New Mass, or else we preserve our Catholic "Faith by adhering faithfully to the traditional mass of All Time.

The New Mass was made in accordance with the Protestant definition of the Mass: "The Lord's Supper or Mass is a sacred synaxis or assembly of the people of God which gathers together under the prescience of the priest to celebrate the memorial of the Lord." (Par. 7 Introduction to the New Missal, defining the New Mass, 4/6/69).

By means of ambiguity, the New Mass pretends to please Catholics while pleasing Protestants; thus it is "double tongued" and offensive to God who abhors any kind of hypocrisy: "Cursed be... the double-tongued for they destroy the peace of many." (Sirach 28:13).

Because beautiful and familiar catholic hymns which have inspired people for centuries, have been thrown out and replaced with new hymns strongly Protestant in sentiment (i.e. "Amazing Grace", "How Great thou Art", etc.), and we now sing songs that are of a secular origin (i.e. "Morning has Broken", etc., etc.). This further deepens the already distinct impression that one is no longer attending a Catholic Mass.

The New Mass contains ambiguities subtly favoring heresy, which is more dangerous than if it were clearly heretical since a half-heresy half resembles the truth!

Because Christ has only Spouse, the Catholic Church, and her worship service cannot also serve religions that are at enmity with her

The New Mass follows the format of Cranmer's heretical Anglican Mass, and the methods used to promote it follow precisely the methods of the English heretics.

Because the Church has canonized numerous English martyrs who were killed because they refused to participate at a Mass such as the New Mass!

Because Protestants who once converted to Catholicism are scandalized to see that the New Mass is the same as the one they attended as Protestants.

Statistics show a great decrease in conversions to Catholicism following use of the New Mass. Conversions, which were in the 100,000 range a year in the U.S., have decreased to less than 10,000!

The Traditional Mass has forged many saints. "Innumerable saints have been fed abundantly with the proper piety towards God by it (the Latin Mass)..." (Pope Paul VI, Const. Apost. Missale Romanum)

Because the nature of the New Mass is such as to facilitate profanations of the Holy Eucharist, which occur with a frequency unheard of with the traditional Mass.

The New Mass, despite appearances, convey a New Faith, not the Catholic Faith. It conveys Modernism and follows EXACTLY the tactics of Modernism, using vague terminology in order to insinuate and advance Error.

By introducing optional variations, the New Mass undermines the unity of the liturgy, with each priest liable to deviate as he fancies under the guise of creativity. Disorder inevitably results, accompanied by lack of respect & by irreverence.

Because many good Catholic theologians, canonists and priests do not accept the New Mass and affirm that they are unable to celebrate it in good conscience.

The New Mass has eliminated such things as: genuflections (only three remain), purification of the priest's fingers in the chalice, preservation from all profane contact of priest's fingers after the Consecration, sacred altar stone and relics, three altar cloths (reduced to one), all of which "only serve to emphasize how outrageously faith in the dogma of the Real Presence is implicitly repudiated."

Because the traditional Mass, enriched and mastered by centuries of Sacred Tradition, was codified (not invented!) by Saint Pope Pius V; whereas the New Mass was artificially fabricated.

Because the Errors of the New Mass which are accentuated in the vernacular version are even present in the Latin text of the New Mass.

Because the New Mass, with its ambiguity and permissiveness, exposes us to the wrath of God by facilitating the risk of invalid celebrations. "Will priests of the near future who have not received the traditional formation, and who rely on the Novus Ordo with the intention of 'doing what the Church does,' consecrate validly? One may be allowed to doubt it."

Because the abolition of the traditional Mass recalls the prophecy of (Daniel 8:12) "And he was given power against the perpetual sacrifice because of the sins of the people" and the observation of St. Alphonsus DE Liguori that because the Mass is the best and most beautiful thing which exists in the Church here below, the devil has always tried by means of heretics to deprive us of it.

Because in places where the traditional Mass is preserved, the faith and fervor of the people are greater whereas the opposite is true where the New Mass reigns. (Report on the Mass, Diocese of Campos, ROMA, Buenos Aires #69, 8/81)

Because along with the New Mass goes also a new catechism, a new morality, new prayers, new ideas, a new calendar—in one word, a New church, a complete revolution from the old. "The liturgical reform... do not be deceived, this is where the revolution begins." (Msgr. Dwyer, Archbishop of Birmingham, spokesman of Episcopal Synod.).

Because the intrinsic beauty of the traditional Mass attracts souls by itself; whereas the New Mass, lacking any attractiveness of its own, has to invent novelties and entertainments in order to appeal to people.

Because the New Mass embodies numerous errors condemned dogmatically at the council of Trent (Mass totally in vernacular, words of Consecration spoken aloud, etc. See Coadunation of Jansenist Synod of Pistoia), and errors condemned by Pope Pius VI (e.g. altar in form of a table. See Mediator Dei).

Because the New mass attempts to transform the Catholic Church into a new, ecumenical church embracing all ideologies and all religions—right and wrong, truth and error—a goal long dream by the enemies of the Catholic Church.

Because the New Mass, in removing the salutations and final blessing when the priest celebrates alone, shows a disbelief in the dogma of the Communion of Saints.

Because the altar and tabernacle are now separated, thus marking a division between Christ in His priest-and-Sacrifice on-the-altar, from Christ in His Real Presence in the tabernacle, "two things which of their very nature, must remain together." (Pope Pius XII)

Because the New Mass no longer constitutes a vertical worship from man to God, but instead a horizontal worship between man and man.

Because the New Mass, although appearing to conform to the dispositions of Vatican Council II, in reality opposes its instructions, since the Council declared its desire to conserve and promote its traditional rite.

Because the traditional Latin Mass of Pope St. Pius V has never been legally abrogated and therefore remains a true rite of the Catholic Church by which Catholics may fulfill their Sunday obligation Because Pope St. Pius V granted a perpetual indult, valid "for always," to celebrate the traditional Mass freely, licitly, without scruple of conscience, punishment, sentence or censure (Papal Bull "Quo Primum").

Because Pope Paul VI, when promulgating the New Mass, himself declared, "The rite... by itself is NOT a dogmatic definition..." (11/19/69)

Because Pope Paul VI, when asked by Cardinal Heenan of England, if he was abrogating or prohibiting the Tridentine Mass, answered: "It is not my intention to prohibit absolutely the Tridentine Mass."

Because "In the Libera Nos of the New Mass, the Blessed Virgin, the Apostles and all the Saints are no longer mentioned; her and their intercession thus no longer asked even in time of peril."

Because in none of the three (now five) new Eucharistic Prayers (of the New Mass) is there any reference... to the state of suffering of those who have died, in none the possibility of a particular memento, thus underling faith in the redemptive nature of the Sacrifice.

Because, although we recognize the Holy Father's supreme authority in his universal government of the Church, but we know that when this authority cannot impose upon us a practice which is equivocal and favoring heresy and therefore disagreeable to God.

Because, as stated in Vatican Council I, the "Holy Ghost was not promised to the successors of Peter, that by His revelation they might make new doctrine, but that by His assistance they might inviolable keep and faithfully expound the revelation or deposit of faith relieved through the Apostles." (D.S. 3070).

And finally, heresy, or whatever clearly flavors heresy cannot be matter for obedience. Obedience is at the service of Faith and not Faith at the service of obedience! In this foregoing case then, one must obey God before men".

(Acts of the Apostles 5:29).

PRAY THE ROSARY

"After the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, there is nothing in the Church that I love as much as the Rosary."

Our Lady to Blessed Alan de la Roche.

We live in evil times. I hardly need elaborate the multitude of crises that fill the globe. Sadly, many are being swept away by this flood of evil and are succumbing to an overwhelming anxiety and discouragement. But no matter how tempting it is, we must not shrink back. We must pray and fast with a living faith and a firm confidence—and there is no better way to do this than by praying the Holy Rosary

Through this prayer of immense power, countless miracles have been obtained and victories won. In fact, we celebrate the feast of the rosary on this day, because through it, a powerful military victory was obtained at the battle of Lepanto. In these dark days, we must not be afraid. Like our forebears in faith, we must one again turn again to the rosary, calling on the Immaculate Virgin to come to our assistance and put our enemies to flight.

Here are quotes from Popes

- 1) "The Rosary is the most excellent form of prayer and the most efficacious means of attaining eternal life. It is the remedy for all our evils, the root of all our blessings. There is no more excellent way of praying." Pope Leo XIII
- 2) It is mainly to expand the kingdom of Christ that we look to the rosary for the most effective help. Pope Leo XIII
- 3) Experience has shown that to inculcate love for the Mother of God deeply in souls there is nothing more efficacious than the practice of the rosary. Pope Leo XIII
- 4) In Mary, God has given us the most zealous guardian of Christian unity. There are, of course, more ways than one to win her protection by prayer, but as for us, we think that the best and most effective way to her favor lies in the rosary. Pope Leo XIII
- 5) "If you persevere in reciting the Rosary, this will be a most probable sign of your eternal salvation." Pope St. Pius IX
- 6) "Give me an army praying the Rosary and I will conquer the world." Pope St. Pius IX
- 7) "The Rosary is a powerful weapon to put the demons to flight and to keep oneself from sin...If you desire peace in your hearts, in your homes, and in your country, assemble each evening to recite the Rosary. Let not even one day pass without saying it, no matter how burdened you may be with many cares and labors." Pope Pius XI
- 8) Never will anyone who says his Rosary every day become a formal heretic or be led astray by the devil. Pope St. Pius X

9) "The Rosary is the most beautiful and the most rich in graces of all prayers; it is the prayer that touches most the Heart of the Mother of God...and if you wish peace to reign in your homes, recite the family Rosary." Pope St.Pius X

10) "The Rosary is a powerful weapon to put the demons to flight and to keep oneself from sin...If you desire peace in your hearts, in your homes, and in your country, assemble each evening to recite the Rosary. Let not even one day pass without saying it, no matter how burdened you may be with many cares and labors." Pope Pius XI

11) There is no surer means of calling down God's blessing upon the family than the daily recitation of the Rosary
Pope Pius XII

12) "The Most Holy Virgin in these last times in which the efficacy of the Rosary. You remember the story of David who vanquished Goliath. What steps did the young Israelite take to overthrow the giant? He struck him in the middle of the forehead with a pebble from his sling. If we regard the Philistine as representing evil and all its powers: heresy, impurity, pride, we can consider the little stones from the sling capable of overthrowing the enemy as symbolizing the Aves of the Rosary.

13) "The ways of God are entirely different from our ways. To us it seems necessary to employ powerful means in order to produce great effects. This is not God's method; quite the contrary. He likes to choose the weakest instruments that He may confound the strong: "God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong - Infirma mundi elegit ut confundat fortia" (1 Cor 1:27). 14) "Have you not often met poor old women who are most faithful to the pious recitation of the Rosary? You also must do all that you can to recite it with fervor. Get right down, at the feet of Jesus: it is a good thing to make oneself small in the presence of so great a God." - Dom Columba Marmion, Christ, the Ideal of the Priest.
